Teachers: Feedback Analysis Report Year 2021-22

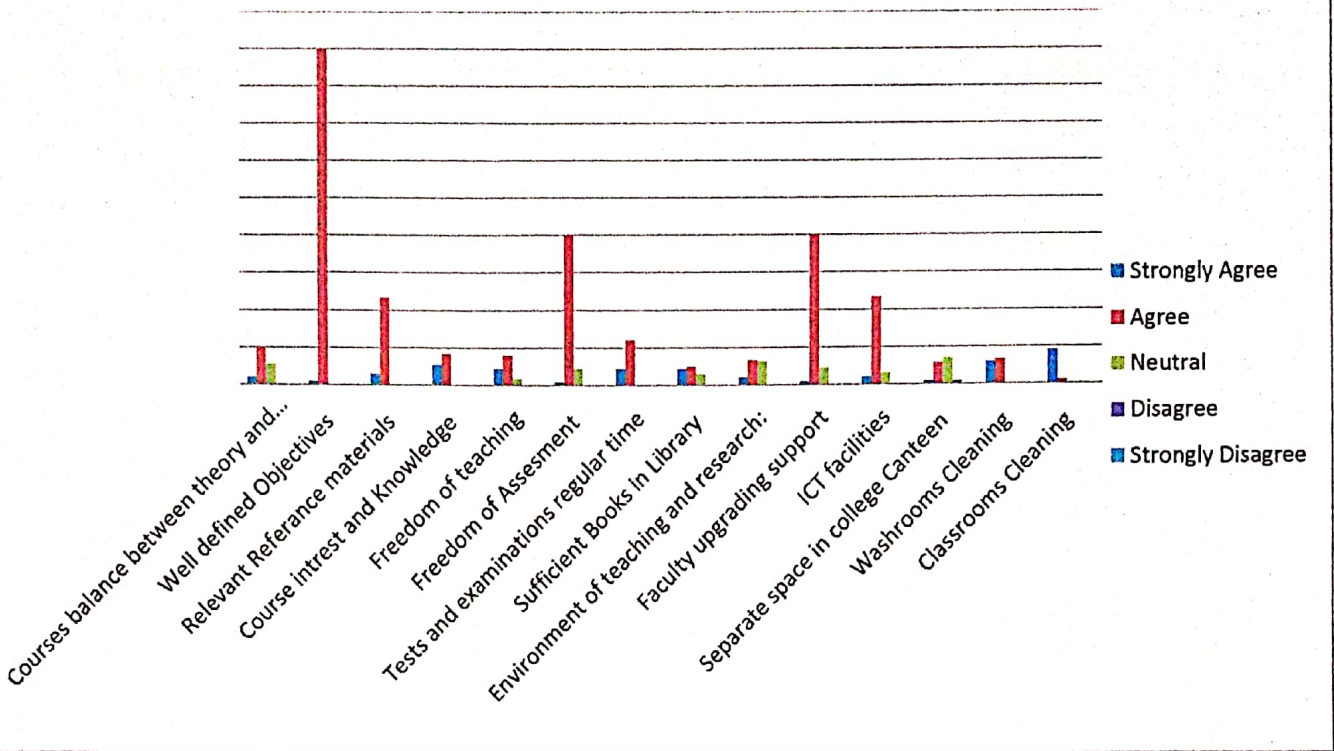

Date: 18/06/2022

In the academic year 2021-22, teachers provided valuable feedback on various aspects of the teaching and learning environment. The feedback was collected using a scale ranging from "Strongly Agree" to "Strongly Disagree." Notable positive feedback includes a high level of agreement on the balance between theory and application in courses, well-defined course objectives, and the relevance of reference materials. Teachers also expressed satisfaction with the level of course interest and knowledge imparted.

14	Classrooms Cleaning	90.00	11.11	0.00	0.00	0.00

However, there are areas that require attention and improvement. For instance, there were concerns raised about the freedom of teaching and assessment, with a notable percentage indicating neutrality or disagreement. Additionally, aspects like tests and examinations being conducted at regular times, sufficient books in the library, and the availability of separate spaces in the college canteen received mixed feedback. These areas could be focal points for enhancement in the future.

Teachers: Feedback Analysis 2021-22

On a positive note, the high agreement on cleanliness in washrooms and classrooms is commendable. The institution can build on these strengths while addressing the identified areas of improvement. Overall, the feedback analysis provides valuable insights into the teachers' perspectives, guiding the institution's efforts in continuously enhancing the teaching and learning experience.
